

Urban-rural Integration in China

This Dialogue will focus on sharing the experience of China's large-scale experiment on narrowing its urban-rural disparity and experiences on urban-rural integration. Recently, China has established 11 National Pilot Zones for Urban-rural Integration; Professor Zheng will use the 11 National Pilot Zones as examples to share with the audience how China conducts Urban-rural Integration Development and its efforts. The Dialogue will shed more light on these experiments' implementations, impacts, existing problems, and policy implications.
