

Creating Future Leaders

This Dialogue will introduce a range of initiatives for promoting regional revitalisation and solving social issues. These include human resources development programmes, community support projects, and university outreach programmes. These initiatives are steadily contributing to resolution of regional challenges and the cultivation of human resources that support local communities. It is essential to recognise the importance of developing a strong pool of potential leaders for regional revitalisation.