

Professor Lam Kin-Che

Adjunct Professor at The Chinese University of Hong Kong; Chairperson of Vetting Subcommittee of the HKSAR Government's Countryside Conservation Funding Scheme

Professor Lam is Adjunct Professor of The Chinese University of Hong Kong specialising in environmental policy and assessment; a long-time environmental advisor of the Hong Kong SAR Government and a free-lance environmental consultant of The World Bank. He is currently member of the Advisory Committee on Countryside Conservation in Hong Kong and was formerly Chair of the Advisory Council on the Environment (2002-2009), Task Force on Biodiversity Conservation Strategy and Action Plan of Hong Kong SAR (2012-2015) and member of the Council of Sustainable Development. For his contributions to environmental protection and environmental assessment, he was awarded the Silver Bauhinia Star by the Hong Kong SAR Government (2006) and the Regional Award from the International Association of Impact Assessment (2016).